

Merry Christmas

Good Of The Order

God give us men! A time like this demands
 Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;
 Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
 Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
 Men who possess opinions and a will;

Men who have honor; Men who will not lie;
 Men who can stand before a demagogue
 And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking!

Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
 In public duty and private thinking;
 For while the rabble, with their thumb-worn creeds,
 Their large professions and their little deeds,
 Mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps,
 Wrong rules the land and waiting justice sleeps.

Josiah Gilbert Holland (1809 - 1894)

Wages of a Mason

Masonic labor is purely a labor of love. He who seeks to draw Masonic wages in gold and silver will be disappointed. The wages of a Mason are earned and paid in their dealings with one another; sympathy that begets sympathy, kindness begets kindness, helpfulness begets helpfulness, and these are the wages of a Mason.

Benjamin Franklin (1706-1790)

FROM THE EAST

Greetings Brethren,

Another year has again brought us to our annual election & appointment of officers. Our election was held on Nov. 3rd

It is my pleasure to present to you these Officers (here-in listed). With this new Masonic year, I am troubled by the great challenge they face. The reason is, year by year we have seen fewer & fewer Brethren showing up for Lodge to assist with keeping the Lodge open, functional & going forward. With several of our new and youngest Brethren having moved out of the area our hopes of a renewal and resurgence of energy bringing our Lodge back from the edge, adds to what has me truly troubled. It should also trouble those Brethren in the local area for what may be coming down the road for the Lodge in the near future.

I can say though, that our new Master, Brother Beau Boyd, while moving to the east from the south, has the energy, will power and "can do" attitude that will make a start on a resurgence in our activities as a Lodge & as Masons.

Again though, I must strongly charge you, who have been away from lodge, to come back and help him and the other officers get us back on track.

Fraternally, Perry Cooper, Worshipful Master

Masonic dedication means making an effort to attend lodge and participate in the activities. If participation is not possible, attendance to support the brethren who work to keep the lodge alive is important beyond measure. Too often we tend to stay comfortable at home thinking "Tonight is Lodge night and I should go. No, tonight I'm tired, perhaps next time. "That decision shows apathy and indifference. Dedication will overcome apathy, but it takes some positive action on all our parts. Please attend and help keep Robert Burns Lodge No. 97 alive. "

Greetings From the South

On this the eve of installation I think it of a paramount of importance that we acknowledge the issues before this lodge that threaten to wither us on the vine. My year in the East will be spent not only trying to address these issues but also in asking each and every brother to do what he can to ensure a collaborative effort to make our lodge a stronger and more productive one. At the top of my list of concerns, and hopefully yours as well, is dwindling attendance. We have to take an aggressive approach within reason, to bolster our numbers not only to procure the future longevity of our lodge but also to help do our part in reversing the gradual decline of numbers in masonry as a whole.

Beau Boyd, Junior Warden
